

Certain universities receive International Baccalaureate (IB) transcripts electronically. Below is the most up to date list.

Before contacting us, please note the following:

1. Electronic transcripts are sent to the university as soon as they are processed.
2. Please check your university's IB recognition policy. Each institution decides on their own individual policy and may have criteria for determining credit (i.e. minimum scores, higher level IB courses only, etc.)
3. Please check with the university in question to ensure they have downloaded your scores. (Give them all of your particulars - full name, exam session month(s)/year(s), birth date etc.) If they have downloaded your scores, credit for IB diplomas and certificates will be applied in due course according to the university's policy.
4. Once an electronic transcript has been sent once, universities may re-download it numerous times.
