

More Trainers:

Bonnie J. Walker, Ph.D.,.....

is the Department Head and Professor in the Psychology Dept. Dr. Walker received her Ph.D. and M.A. degrees in Experimental Psychology from Bowling Green State University in Ohio. She teaches at the university level, and conducts and supervises research on a variety of topics. She has served on a number of community boards, worked on civic projects, and volunteered her services to children's and adult groups in Ohio, Florida, and Texas. Her areas of expertise include thinking processes, problem-solving, and women's issues.

Louis P. Anderson, Ph.D.,.....

is a Professor in the Psychology Department. Dr. Anderson received his Ph.D. degree in Clinical Psychology from the University of Houston in 1984. His research concerns the development of a culturally based approach to the study of the mechanism of stress and coping among African Americans.

Edward J. Schauer, Ph.D.,.....

is a Professor in the Criminal Justice Department. Dr. Schauer received his Ph.D. degree in Criminal Justice from Sam Houston State University in 1990 and a M.A. degree in Political Science from the University of South Dakota in 1984. His research interests lie in the areas of critical thinking/ethical decision making, the college success of black males and women's issues in corrections, sex trafficking, and prostitution. Dr. Schauer currently teaches in the undergraduate program of the Criminal Justice Department.

Ronald D. Server, J.D.,.....

is a Professor and Coordinator for the undergraduate Criminal Justice Program. Mr. Server received his J.D. degree in 1984 from South Texas College of Law, an M.P.A. degree in Public Administration from Texas Christian University in 1976, and a B.A. degree in Political Science from Prairie View A&M University in 1973. Mr. Server's research interests include, comparative legal studies, segregation law and Black codes, segregation in the American legal and education systems, and the Russian legal system.

Quotes From Previous Training Participants

"As our budgets are reduced, obtaining quality training becomes a much greater and challenging task. We deeply appreciate the opportunity to receive the quality training offered by the Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center."

Karen Carroll, Training and Personnel Coordinator
Brazoria County Juvenile Probation Department

~~~~~

"I wanted to write a short note to complement you on the recent cultural diversity and ethics training provided to our staff. What started out as a vague concept on my part was transformed into exactly what I wanted the training to be. It was informative, thought provoking and most importantly, it was both well received and internalized by staff."

Harvey Hetzel, Executive Director
Harris County Juvenile Probation Department

~~~~~

"The Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center of the College of Juvenile Justice & Psychology at Prairie View A&M University has conducted outstanding training programs for our department. Our probation officers and residential personnel consistently give Prairie View A&M presenters excellent evaluation scores."

Michael Griffiths, Juvenile Services Director
Dallas County Juvenile Probation Department

Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center

College of
Juvenile Justice & Psychology
Prairie View A&M University

P.O. Box 519, MS 2600
Prairie View, TX 77446

Phone: 936-261-5212
Fax: 936-261-5252

www.pvamu.edu

Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center

College of
Juvenile Justice
& Psychology

Prairie View
A&M University

Training and Continuing Education

~~~~~

For Professionals In:

Juvenile Justice
Criminal Justice
Social Services and Public Schools

Mission:

The Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center, mandated by House Bill 1550, is committed to providing continuing education and in-service training on juvenile crime and delinquency prevention for criminal justice and social service professionals throughout Texas.

Training Topics Include:

- Cultural Diversity & Ethics
- Effective Communication
- 2007 Juvenile Law Updates:
  1. TYC Reform
  2. Inter-County Transfers
  3. Sex Offenders & Victims
  4. Education
- Mental Health Concerns
- Suicide Prevention & Intervention
- Training ABC's
- Working with Problematic Clients
- Team Building
- Working with female juvenile offenders

All training programs can be customized to meet the needs of the agency.

Who Should Attend?:

- Criminal Justice Professionals
- Juvenile Justice Professionals
- Social Services Professionals
- Public School Officials

Continuing Education Credits:

- TJPC—Texas Juvenile Probation Commission
- LPC—Licensed Professional Counselor
- LCDC—Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor
- TCLEOSE—Texas Commission for Law Enforcement Officer Standards & Education
- MFC—Marriage & Family Counseling

Training Locations:

- On-site or at any location chosen by the department.
- Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center, Prairie View A&M University, Prairie View, Texas.

Training Cost:

All training costs are negotiable.

Training Methods:

- Classroom instruction (2-6 hour training sessions) including:
  - ◇ Educational Materials
  - ◇ Pre & Post Testing
  - ◇ Overall Evaluation of Training
  - ◇ Action Plan
  - ◇ Technical Assistance
- Via web Video Streaming and Video Conferencing.

Trainers:

Jo Ann Jones-Burbridge, M.A.,.....

is the Associate Director of the Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center in the College of Juvenile Justice & Psychology at Prairie View A&M University. Ms. Jones-Burbridge has more than 30 years of community outreach experience as a practitioner, administrator, and volunteer. She earned her M.A. degree in Guidance & Counseling from Texas Southern University and a B.A. degree in Sociology from Dillard University. Ms. Jones-Burbridge holds a Human Resources Certification from Rice University. She has designed training programs and trained more than 80% of the criminal justice professionals throughout Texas.

Grady M. Paris, J.D.,.....

is the Training Specialist for the Texas Juvenile Crime Prevention Center in the College of Juvenile Justice & Psychology at Prairie View A&M University. Ms. Paris is a graduate of Texas Southern University with a major in Government and minor in English. Since receiving her Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Houston, Bates College of Law, she has practiced law in the Houston/Galveston area for twenty-five years and served as a Municipal Court Judge for the City of Houston for seven years.

Trainers continued →