Welcome to New Student Orientation webpage

New Student Orientation (NSO)

We serve as your essential support system to the university and are designed to help finalize the Enrollment Management process. At your session, we provide access to information and services required to successfully assist new students in transitioning to university life.

About NSO

- Brochures are mailed with your admissions letter
- You must register online to sign up for a date
- Our office will confirm your session date
- Your confirmation card will be emailed to the address you provide

College of Nursing

Students attending the College of Nursing in downtown Houston will participate in the orientation session held at that location. For details, please dial 713-797-7000.
