Panther Card

What is the Panther Card? - The Panther Card is the official PV Identification Card for student, faculty, and staff.

Why do I need a Panther Card? - If you're a student, you need your card to:

- Access your resident meal services
- Access your resident laundry services
- Use the University Exchange bookstore(Panther Bucks)
- Check out library books
- Use the computer lab
- Use the student Health Center(student services)
- Buy tickets to campus entertainment events(student rates)
- Attend Athletic Events(student rates)

How can I get a Panther Card?

Step 1

After completing the registration or the Faculty/Staff orientation process, go to the Memorial Student Center (MSC) room 107, to have your I.D. taken and to be issued your initial I.D. card. A Valid Driver's License or some form of picture ID must be presented.

Step 2

If your I.D. card is lost or stolen you should first report it to the Auxiliary Services Office Rm. 107 or call (936) 261-1700 immediately. Faculty/Staff who need to purchase a replacement ID must make a $10 payment at the cashier window (W.R. Banks Bldg. 1st floor). They will present you with a receipt as proof of payment that the you would bring to Auxiliary Services along with a picture ID to take a replacement ID. Students who need to purchase a replacement ID would go to Auxiliary Service to have the $10.00 assessed to their fees. Once the replacement ID has been taken, the $10.00 replacement cost is non-refundable and the old ID is permanently deactivated.
