The International Study Abroad Program

International experiences expand students' understanding and deepen their knowledge of the world, thus better preparing them for a life of service and professional productivity in the ever increasing global marketplace.

Students participating in the study abroad programs must be approved by an advisor, department or division head, and dean. In selecting programs abroad, they should assess at the outset whether proficiency in a language other than English is required or preferred.

Applicants for the study abroad programs are to present evidence of the following:

- Completion of a minimum of 30 semester credit hours of college level work;
- Enrollment in the University during the semester of application for study abroad plans to enroll in the University during the semester or summer terms that the student expects to be abroad;
- Attainment of a minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.50;
- Attainment of a minimum graduate GPA of 3.0;
- Agreement to participate in all applicable orientations to the study abroad program;
- Coverage by health insurance that is acceptable by medical providers in the countries of destination;
- Commitment to complete the study abroad assignments;

Applications for Study Abroad Programs should be directed to the Center for International Studies and Research, Room 102, Woolfolk Building, or call (936) 261-3200.
