Dear Jim,

On behalf of ADE, 2008 Seminar East host Donald Hall, and West Virginia University, I write to thank you for your participation at the recent ADE seminar in Morgantown. The seminars succeed because of each participant's commitment to a supportive exchange of ideas and information. Thank you for everything you did to help make the Morgantown meeting enjoyable and productive for everyone.

A seminar evaluation form is enclosed in case you did not have a chance to complete one before you left Morgantown or have further comments or observations to add. Especially useful are suggestions for topics that you would like to see on the seminar programs next year.

In 2009 ADE will meet conjointly with ADFL in Providence, RI, 11–14 June 2009, hosted by Brown University. The second seminar will take place in Las Vegas, Nevada, 22–25 June, hosted by the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Again, ADE Associate Director Doug Steward and I thank you for your contributions to the success of the seminar in Morgantown and for your department's continued membership in and support of ADE. Please let us know how the office can assist you and your colleagues—whether through the seminars, the ADE chairs discussion list, ADE Bulletin, the ADE Web site, or in other ways.

With warm good wishes for your summer,

Yours truly,

David Laurence
Director, MLA Office of Research and ADE
