

Cortland

State University of New York College at Cortland

PRESIDENTIAL SEARCH

The State University of New York College at Cortland invites nominations and applications for the position of President. The College seeks an energetic, dynamic individual to lead and to engage its faculty, staff, students and community in what promises to be an exciting and significant era of education and service.

The College, founded in 1868, has approximately 5,700 undergraduate students, 1,600 graduate students, a full-time faculty of 260 and 250 adjuncts, and an annual budget of $90,000,000. One of thirteen comprehensive colleges within the SUNY system, the College is dedicated to the pursuit of excellence in teaching, scholarship, research, and service to the community. Cortland offers to its students programs leading to both Bachelor's and Master's degrees, organized within the School of Arts and Sciences, the School of Professional Studies, and, effective Fall 2003, a new School of Education, whose programs were formerly within Professional Studies. Approximately 44% of Cortland students are enrolled in teacher education programs. The College also has a national reputation for its strong Division III athletics program, fielding 25 intercollegiate teams and regularly finishing in the top twenty in Sears Cup competition.

SUNY Cortland is located in the beautiful Finger Lakes Region in Central New York, with easy access to four-state recreation. The city of Cortland has a population of 20,000 and is approximately a half-hour away from Syracuse, Ithaca, and Binghamton.

The ideal candidate for the presidency of SUNY Cortland will have the following professional qualifications and personal characteristics, among others, an earned doctorate, successful administrative experience at the level of Dean or above, and be tenurable in a department of the College; the vision, insight, and skill to lead an institution with the dual mission of providing strong teacher education and liberal arts programs; the ability to work effectively with all members of the College community—to listen, to engage, and to foster individual and community-wide development; substantial leadership, management, and fundraising experience at a senior level; and the highest personal integrity. SUNY Cortland takes seriously its commitment to diversity and civility and seeks a president dedicated to those values.

The search committee is chaired by Mr. Stephen Hunt, chair of the College Council. The committee will make its recommendations to the College Council, which in turn will make its recommendations to the Chancellor of the SUNY system and to the SUNY Board of Trustees.

Review of candidates will begin in mid-January and will continue until the position is filled, with a preferred starting date of July 1, 2003. Application materials should include: a letter describing the candidate's interest in and qualifications for the position; a curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses (including email), and telephone numbers for at least five references, which may include trustees, administrators, faculty, students, and community leaders. Applicants and nominators are strongly encouraged to communicate by email utilizing Word attachments.

All nominations and applications shall be confidential. Requests for information and all written nominations and applications should be directed to:

Charles I. Bunting
SUNY Cortland Presidential Search
A.T. Kearney Education Practice
333 John Carlyle Street
Alexandria, Virginia 22314
Charles.bunting@atkearney.com
Stephen.leo@atkearney.com

The search committee is being assisted by Chuck Bunting, Vice President, and Steve Leo, Consultant, with the A.T. Kearney Education Practice. Questions may be directed to them at: charles.bunting@atkearney.com; and stephen.leo@atkearney.com; 703-739-4631. Questions also may be directed to Dr. Patricia Francis, Campus Liaison, at francisp@cortland.edu; 607-753-2201.

For more information on the College and its programs, please consult its Web site: www.Cortland.edu.

SUNY Cortland is an AA/EEO/ADA employer

MID-PLAINS COMMUNITY AREA

Presidential Search

Located in West-Central and Southwest Nebraska, the Mid-Plains Community College Area is seeking applications and nominations for President.

For more information, and to view qualifications and challenges, please visit our Website at www.mpcca.cc.ne.us or contact: MPCCA Search Committee, %Karen Osborn, Search Liaison, 1101 Halligan Dr., North Platte, NE 69101, (308) 535-3720, e-mail to: osbornk@mpcca.cc.ne.us, or Dr. Dan Moriarty, ACCT Search Consultant, (941) 745-9602, dfmoriarty36@aol.com, or Narcisca A. Polonio at (202) 276-1983 or e-mail to: npolonio@acct.org. We encourage all applicants to submit a complete application prior to January 24, 2003.

An ACCT Search. MPCCA is an Equal Opportunity Employer/Educator.

scripts, 3 letters, 100 slides of theatre design, design (variety of styles), selected portfolio elements (two design, 1 management, reduced to 8 x 11) to Theatre Teacher/Design/Production Manager Search, Human Resources, Wisconsin State University, PO Box 5038, Wisconsin, Minnesota. $700-$800. Position available pending budgetary approval. AA/EEOE tenure-track, with an initial renewable three-year contract. Responsibilities: Four consecutive mentor roles for new pastors; partner with the Dean selecting new pastors and administering the Deacon/Pastor Program. Requirements: Ten years of effective pastoral leadership; M.Div. and Ph.D.; sensitive to the several church constituencies engaged in the Deacon program; show marked pulpit skills; readiness to carry full responsibilities in the school's academic and service programs. Letter with full vita and three references should be sent to: Dr. J. Thomson, Kalos Ashby Theological Seminary, Winchester, Kentucky 40390. Ashby is an independent seminary in the Wesleyan tradition. Deadline: December 1, 2002.

Theology: Preaching and Pastoral Theology. The Nelson International Center for Biblical Preaching and Church Leadership at Ashby Theological Seminary announces a faculty position beginning June 1, 2003.

Theology: The University of Dubuque Theological Seminary, a seminary of the Presbyterian Church (USA), is seeking an instructor in Old Testament to begin teaching in September 2003. This is a one-year appointment with the possibility of renewal. The successful candidate will be able to teach courses in the Old Testament in the M.A.R. and M.Div. degree programs. Ability to teach introductory Greek as well as Hebrew is expected. Applicants should have a vibrant commitment to Jesus Christ and the church and an appreciation of the Reformed theological tradition. An M.Div. or equivalent, ABD or Ph.D. or equivalent in Old Testament is required and pastoral experience is highly desired. Application deadline is January 17, 2003. Appointment contingent on final budgetary approval. A letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference should be sent to: Dean Bradley L. Longfield, University of Dubuque Theological Seminary, 202 University Avenue, Dubuque, Iowa 52001-0599. The University of Dubuque is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

Thology: Faculty. Anticipated tenure-track position. Professor, starting August 2003. Rank and salary commensurate with experience. This position is contingent upon funding being available. Area of concentration in Moral Theology combined with either Pastoral/Ministry Studies or Fundamental Theology. The Theology Department offers an undergraduate major in theology and a Master's Program in Pastoral Studies. Applicant will be expected to teach introductory courses in theology, one course each year in the Adult ACCEL (accelerated) Program, and cyclical courses in the M.P.S. Program at Ambrose University in a Catholic, liberal arts, diocesan university that emphasizes excellence in teaching and ongoing professional development. Total institutional enrollment is 3,000 students. St. Ambrose is located in Davenport, Iowa, one of the Quad Cities, a vibrant and diverse metropolitan area with a population of more than 50,000. The Mississippi River joins the two-state community, creating a very affordable, metropolitan, and culturally rich urban setting (distinguished by friendly people and unique river vistas. Review of applications will begin October 1, 2002 and continue until the position is filled. Initial interviews will be conducted at the annual AAR meeting, November 22-25 in Toronto. Please send cover letter, vita and names, addresses and telephone numbers of three references to: Director of Personnel, St. Ambrose University, 518 West Leavelle Street, Davenport, Iowa 52803 AA/EEOE.

Transportation Studies: Associate Specialist, Job # ITS-117, Institute of Transportation Studies, University of California, Berkeley, $45,048-$54,240. The Institute of Transportation Studies at the University of California, Berkeley is recruiting for an Associate Specialist to perform transportation research with a focus on optics and photometry. The successful candidate will perform varied tasks in optics and photometry, electronic instrumentation, computer hardware and programming. Familiarity with the design and implementation of visual psychophysical experiments is desirable. Position requires the ability to operate a Texas video photometer and associated software to generate detailed radiometric and photometric specifications of various sources. Maintain, align and modify a custom-built heterodyne laser photometer including associated electronics, camera, and computer hardware and software. Design and integrate electronic instrumentation to control stimuli in psychophysical experiments. Program a National Instruments data acquisition board to enable various timing functions in psychophysical experiments. Maintain a medium-sized laboratory computer network including hardware and software installation, backup, and security. Design and implement a radiance measurement device for field measurement of traffic vehicle behavior. Assume responsibility as project director for various tasks, including supervision of students and staff, and interfacing with state and local agency officials. Required qualifications: Professional or advanced degree in engineering, physics, or computer science; or equivalent combination of education and experience. Anticipated start date: January 1, 2003. Application deadline: November 30, 2002. Send curriculum vitae, including publications list, and three references to: ITS-117 Search Committee, Institute of Transportation Studies, Room 5A, McLaughlin Hall, MC 1720, Berkeley, California 94720. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

Transportation Logistics: The School of Business and Economics at North Carolina A&T State University invites applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant associate level, beginning Fall 2003, to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Transportation Logistics and Supply Chain Management. Applicants should hold an appropriate earned doctorate (ABD) and completion are encouraged to apply and demonstrate a commitment to quality teaching, research, and service. The School's business and economics programs are AACSB-accredited. Send latest letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference to: Dr. Robert Angoff, Chair, Search Committee, School of Business and Economics, North Carolina A&T State University, 100 East Market Street, Greensboro, North Carolina 27411. An AA/EEO Employer.

Visual Communication Technology: Assistant Associate Professor—all ranks created. Bowling Green State University. Our growing major in computer graphics is expanding with multiple position openings. This is a tenure-track position starting August 2003.

Prairie View A&M University PRESIDENT

The Texas A&M University System Board of Regents and the Chancellor invite nominations and applications for the position of President of Prairie View A&M University.

Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) opened in 1878 and is the second oldest public institution of higher education in Texas. It is a state-assisted institution, serving a diverse ethnic and socioeconomic population, and is a land-grant institution by federal statute. It is dedicated to excellence in teaching, research and service. The University enrollment is over 7,000, serving an area comprising the Texas Gulf Coast Region, but students come from throughout the U.S. and many foreign countries. Located on a 1,500-acre site in Waller County, the main campus is approximately 45 miles northwest of Houston, Texas, on State Highway 290. Prairie View A&M University's academic programs are organized into eight colleges/schools: Agriculture and Human Sciences, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Juvenile Justice and Psychology, and Nursing (located in Houston in the Texas Medical Center). These academic units have 24 departments and 2 divisions and offer 72 major areas of study plus 30 optional programs. The University is committed to advanced education through the master's degree and is expanding advanced educational offerings to include multiple doctoral programs.

The President is the CEO of the University and reports directly to the Chancellor of the Texas A&M University System. The President must provide visionary leadership, be a proven fund raiser, be committed to diversity and a global outlook, and must work effectively with the Chancellor and Board of Regents. The President must be an articulate advocate who will represent the University effectively to diverse constituencies, including the legislature. Qualifications include a distinguished record of leadership, scholarly achievement, demonstrated excellent administrative skills, and the ability to work effectively with faculty, staff, students, alumni and other constituencies. An earned doctorate is preferred.

Successful candidates will be evaluated on these and other attributes:

- Experience with federal and other agencies
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Understanding and appreciation of PVAMU history and strengths
- Demonstrated experience working with cross-cultural environments
- Commitment to advanced technology throughout the university
- Ability to expand research and graduate programs
- Demonstrated success at increasing university enrollment while maintaining high standards
- The demonstrated capacity to provide leadership in fund-raising activities
- A track record in effective leadership and decision-making based on shared governance
- A track record in planning (involving implementation, assessment, and budget allocations)

The planned appointment date is Summer, 2003. The search will continue until the position is filled and evaluations will begin as dossiers are received, but for full consideration, nominations and applications should be received by January 15, 2003. Under Texas law, the names of finalists only must be disclosed 21 days prior to the Board of Regents action to appoint the next President. Applications should include a letter addressing the above attributes, the candidate's vision for the university, a curriculum vitae, and names, addresses and phone numbers of 3-6 references. Nominations and applications should be sent to:

Dr. Jerry Gaston, Chair, Presidential Search Advisory Committee
The Texas A&M University System
John B. Connally Building, 7th Floor, 301 Tarrow
College Station, Texas 77840-7896
E-mail: pvamusearch@tamu.edu

The Texas A&M University System is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer