All Prairie View A&M Faculty:

As you know, PVAMU moved to a new course management system (CMS) for online and web-assisted courses in the 2008 Fall semester. We are providing one more set of training sessions for the 2008 Fall semester to accommodate those who were not able to attend the earlier sessions. In an effort to accommodate as many participants as possible, we are offering a choice of training schedules at different days and locations.

Please note: Only ONE of the training blocks will be scheduled. We will schedule the training according to the selection made by the majority of the participants. We must receive your input by Sunday, December 15th in order to have sufficient time to prepare for the session.
